Part Two – APS Details

Please be aware that an APS allowance can only be transferred once and only where no subscriptions have been made under that APS allowance. Once transferred subscriptions may only be made in cash.

Please note that if multiple ISAs were held by the deceased with the ISA manager their value will be combined to form one APS allowance.

Your subscriptions must not exceed your APS allowance. This will depend on the date the original investor died.

If you are unsure of your APS allowance, we recommend you seek financial advice.

To transfer the deceased's Unicorn AIM ISA, please tick here and complete Part Three (on Page 4) and Part 5 (on Page 6):

You can make an APS by transferring stock from the deceased's Unicorn AIM ISA to your own ISA as long as this is done within 180 days of the stock being transferred to your ownership. The deadline for cash subscriptions is the later of 3 years after the date of death or 180 days after the administration of the deceased's estate is complete.

If the current ISA value exceeds the APS allowance we will transfer the holdings proportionally until the allowance is reached.

Instructions for excess payment

If the deceased's Unicorn AIM ISA is now worth more than your APS allowance, the excess funds cannot be subscribed to your ISA. Please tell us what to do with any remaining funds:

- Transferred as stock to my existing Unicorn AIM ISA
- Transferred as stock to my new Unicorn AIM ISA
- Sale of shares and cash payment to my nominated bank account
- Sale of shares and payment by cheque

To invest with a new cash subscription, please tick here and complete Part Four (on Page 6) and Part 5 on (Page 7):

You can make cash subscriptions with your own money to use any remaining APS allowance.

If you would like to make a cash subscription, please complete 'Part Four' on page 6.

Please ignore the below section if you do not wish to do a transfer
