Bed & ISA Application Form

Important Information

Only cash, not shares, can be contributed into an ISA. Therefore, an equal amount of each share held in your Non-ISA portfolio will be sold and the cash proceeds contributed to your ISA.

The sale of shares is a potential disposal for Capital Gains Tax purposes. Therefore, you should seek tax advice in respect of this transaction.

The contribution will then be reinvested within your ISA.

Dealing Fees and other associated dealing costs (e.g. PTM Levy) will be charged on both the sale and the repurchase of your shares. Details of these fees can be found in the Unicorn AIM IHT & ISA Portfolio Service Brochure.

In addition, there will be a bid-offer spread on both sale and purchase, which will likely result in the price paid for the shares in your ISA being higher than the price obtained when they were sold in your Non-ISA portfolio.

During the Bed & ISA process, you will be out of the market from when your shares are sold until the custodian has completed the contribution into your ISA and the contribution is subsequently reinvested.
